

'The Instability of Being'

16th Oct - 14th Nov 2014 At Griffin Gallery

ARTISTS: Eli Acheson-Elmassry, Kimbal Quist Bumstead, Siro Carraro, Dagmar Dost-Nolden, Carolina Khouri, Robert Meldrum, Jean-Pierre Roffi, Dylan Shields, Tess Rachel Williams, Annie Zamero

The Magma Group of artists, at the invitation of the Griffin Gallery in West London, will be exhibiting for a month on the theme 'The Instability of Being'. The private view will be on Thursday 30th October from 6.30-8.30 pm with live music from the Eastern European band 'Balabustah'

The exhibition is a forum for the most exciting, individual and expressive British and international art being made today. The group will exhibit paintings, and sculpture, ranging between the figurative and abstract. This is their fifth show, having been invited by The Other Art Fair and the Vibe Gallery amongst others in the last 2 years.

The aims of the Magma Group are to form an alternative path for the current of conceptually expressive contemporary art. Paul Carey-Kent says, '... the explicitness of the programme behind The Magma Group ... to fuse expressive and conceptual qualities ... is particularly unusual.'

The Magma Group was founded in 2011 and is made up of outstanding artists from France, Germany, Italy, Poland, Russia and the UK, some of whom have shown at the Venice Biennale. Francis Lamb says there is '... a turbulence embodied in this exhibition's themes of instability and unrest-a restlessness of the imagination that could at any moment take flight.'
